

RESTORATION PROCLAMATION

THAT PORTION OF THE PROVO RIVER BETWEEN ITS HEAD WATERS AND DEER CREEK DAM AND SPANISH FORK RIVER AND ALL TRIBUTARIES TO SAID STREAMS

WHEREAS, by proclamation dated December 19, 1946, the Governor of the State of Utah, pursuant to Section 100-8-1, U.C.A., 1943, (now Section 73-6-1 U.C.A., 1953) suspended the right of the public to appropriate water from the following sources:

Green River, in Daggett and Uintah Counties; Little Brush Creek, Brush Creek, Ashley Creek, Uintah River, Yellowstone Creek, Lake Fork Creek, Rock Creek, Duchesne River, Strawberry River, Provo River, Spanish Fork Creek and all tributaries of said streams.

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, there is excepted from the effect of this proclamation as to the streams named above (1) isolated water holes, springs and underground water in the drainage areas of the streams named above; (2) applications for appropriation of not exceeding five second-feet of water for any one project; (3) applications for change of point of diversion, place and nature of use of such surface and underground water and (4) applications for exchange.

AND WHEREAS, the right to appropriate water from the Green River in Daggett and Uintah Counties was restored by proclamation dated June 25, 1958; the right to appropriate water from the Provo River below Deer Creek Dam was restored by proclamation dated December 23, 1948; and the right to appropriate water from Little Brush Creek, Brush Creek, Ashley Creek, Uintah River, Yellowstone Creek, Lake Fork Creek, Rock Creek, Duchesne River and Strawberry River was restored by proclamation dated November 2, 1964, and

WHEREAS, the purposes sought to be accomplished by said withdrawal have been achieved on that portion of the Provo River between its
